Josephine (Jenkins '49) and Edward ('53) Payne report from Lima, Peru, that the Lord has given them the privilege of putting a Gospel program on the air in Spanish over a Roman Catholic radio station. Also, the opportunity of helping to establish a studio for Gospel recordings. Equipment has been ordered for setting up a record press, to be in operation toward the end of the year. D.V. Ted's engineering work takes him into nearly every corner of Peru with an opportunity few missionaries have. He often reaches areas where there are no missionaries.

Lois (Gordon x'55) and Bill (x'55) Lanning report that Bill is working at the Westinghouse Atomic Power Division and taking graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh in physics.

Margaret (Haight '52) and Jack (152) Stange spent the week of June 16th counselling and teaching at the Bible Memory Camp in William's Bay, Wis.

Paul E. Smith, Jr., (x'48), is instructor in history and sociology, at Albany Center, University of Georgia.

Robert St. John ('44) was elected Moderator of the Bible Presbyterian Church, Collingswood Synod, at the Spring meeting. His wife, Alice (Tucker x'47) continues to excel in her sales for Tupperware.

Jim and his wife (Iona Costley '53), this year completed three years of service at the Baptist Institute in Bentonville, Ark., but did not plan because of financial reasons to return in the fall.

TRAVEL REPORTS

Bruce Vogt (x'56) has been stationed with the U.S. Army in England for a year and is active in the Gospel team there at the base.

Joy (Leslie '56) Bostrom expected to move from Phoenix to Bemidji, Minn., in July since her husband has been transferred to Indian work there in his employment as sanitation engineer.

Roy J. Clark ('51) left August 11 for Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, as a delegate to the International Council of Christian Churches, 4th Plenary Congress--August 12-21. He expected to visit Bryan missionaries in Sao Paulo, the Meznar families.

David Graydon (x'60) left July 13 for Great Lake, Ill., for a four-year U.S. Navy enlistment.

Janice (Brown '53) and John ('54) Miesel rejoiced in June when they received word from their pastor that the Racine Church had passage money in hand for the trip to Belgium and money pledged for the trip to Congo. Plans were hastily completed under the Un evangelized Fields Mission for a sailing date in early August to be in Belgium for the opening of school in September.

Milton Murphey (x'44) with his wife and three children left New York August 7 on the S.S. Zion for Israel to arrive in Haifa August 21st. On their return they will be going back to the orphanage and farm at Petah Tikva and in addition will be operating a boarding school for some of the children there. Wilma (Walker x'49) and Bruce ('47) Rosenau with Judy left New York July 16, bound for the Ft. Sibut station under Mid-Missions in Oubangi-Chari, French Equatorial Africa.

LaVerne and sons, Johnny and Jimmy.
Ida and Robert Wagler (s'51) have recently been engaged in an air-lift from Aux Cayes to Jeremie to conduct a literacy campaign among the Creoles. It appears that soon all of the 20,000 "M-ap APRAN LI' (I Am Learning To Read) books to teach illiterates to read and write Creole will be distributed. If half of this number can learn to read the Creole New Testament, the work will be greatly rewarded. Ida Wagler is working on a simple booklet on Child Care to be put into the hands of mothers who learn to read. At present only about one out of eight young people can read, hence the literacy campaign has great promises for this group. Permit was just received in May from the government to allow broadcasting the Gospel on both long wave and short wave. These advances are important in view of the growing shadow of Communism and Nationalism that is covering nearly all of Latin America and threatening missionaries.

Laurine Kolderup ('49) was forced to leave Mexico in May because of illness. During the summer of recuperation she has been able to type the first draft of the translation of Luke in Zapotec. Following the wedding of her partner in Brooklyn on Sept. 13, she plans to return to continue translation work.

Wanda Burcham ('49) plans to fly from India in September to Europe via Palestine, and either fly or sail the Atlantic to arrive in U.S.A. near the end of Sept. During the summer she has been working on a new syllabus for Bible study in the school and wanted also to draw up a set of Bible maps in Telugu for the school's use. Her furlough address is: 709 Smiley Stop Road, New Castle, Pa.

Marjorie and Glen Crumley ('52) returned with their family from Belgian Congo in time to attend the Berean Mission's annual conference in Denver this summer.

In the recent ballot concerning the change of the name of Bryan University to Bryan College, the voting by the 120 who responded showed approval by 81% as against 19% who objected.

Regarding the suggested school song, 77% favored its adoption to 23% who felt it did not meet the qualifications for an Alma Mater. It should be pointed out that "Faith of Our Fathers" will be retained as the college hymn in any event.
